

Authentic Leadership in the Context of Business Agility

written by Manoj Khanna | November 10, 2023

Authentic leadership in the context of Business Agility is a construct that is gaining increasing attention resulting from challenges faced by organizations relating to building culture, driving organizations in the right direction of people and customer profitability, and building favorable outcomes.